

THE BOURBON NEWS.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, JUNE 19, 1883.

NO. 137.

OL. II.

ANTHONY BROCK has been sentenced to prison for ten years, for horse-stealing, Lexington.

WANTED—A situation as governess. Address "Miss J. E. W.," lock box 29, Nicholasville, Ky.

There will be a field trial to-day on the farm of James Clay, near Lexington, eleven twelve-bladders.

Dr. Ed. Ray says if there be but one soldier left next year, he is in favor him meeting and having a reunion.

"COL." CRAWFORD, who murdered Pentons in Lewis county last winter, has been captured at Bloomington, Illinois.

The ladies of the Baptist church will have a strawberry supper in Ingle's new stable Thursday and Friday nights.

It rained cat-fish down in Fleming yesterday last week. Two suckers were found on dry land in the same vicinity.

The Kentucky Hunting Association met in Louisville the 28th, to further air methods of robbing and making it of the people.

At PUNCH, in command of ten mount-militiamen, has gone to Menifee to capture five more of the Bart-gang, now fortified in a cave.

The 4th of July will be celebrated in Lexington, by laying the corner stone of a new Court House and everybody getting drunk out at Woodland Park.

FICKLEN, Bashford & Forsyth. Howes that strike you as an auctioneering combination? Somebody second the motion, and lets pass the resolution.

TOWN MARSHAL George Freeman was not killed at Versailles Saturday night, by Ollie Brown. He received two shots in the breast and one in the leg.

Old Soldiers' Banquet.

The thirteenth annual banquet given by the Mayor and City Council of Paris, to the old soldiers of 1812, took place here yesterday. There were but eight in attendance this year as against thirteen last year. Their names, ages and residence are as follows:

Thos. Jones, Paris, aged 91;
Iv. C. G. Graham, Louisville, aged 90;
J. M. Berry, Mt. Sterling, aged 90;
Gilead Evans, Nicholas county, 88;
Moore Johnson, Mt. Sterling, aged 87;
Dr. Geo. Perrin, Cynthia, aged 89;
S. M. Berry, Scott county, aged 87;
J. C. China, Lexington, aged 84.

Emmett M. Dickson delivered the welcome address, and Doctors Graham and China responded with short speeches. Rev. Mr. French opened the exercises with prayer, and pronounced the benediction at the close. Prof. A. Sanders and several young ladies of the city formed an impromptu choir and interspersed the exercises with music and songs, among which were the thrilling old songs of Yankee Doodle and Hail Columbia.

The banquet spread at the Bourbon House was represented in attendance by the old soldiers, city officers, city newspaper men and fifty or sixty friends of the city officers. The menu was all that could be desired, and ample justice was rendered it by every one present.

Mayor Purnell and the city officers honored the few gallant old veterans in grand style, and the feeble and stooped forms bowed heads with snowy locks in acknowledgement of the fact with hearts beaming over with gratitude.

A vote was taken on the question of another reunion next year, four voting for, four against, and the city officers deciding in the affirmative. Therefore a few, very few of the remaining ones may hope to attend one more reunion ere the last "catfish" bids them "break ranks" and "rest."

NOTES.

"Shiner" Hite carried the big flag as usual.

Dr. China's wife, aged 80, was a guest at the banquet.

"Uncle" Tommie White being quite ill could not attend the banquet.

Albert Adair said that there was nothing new about the exercises but the dinner.

The same old base drum used at the battle of Hatteras furnished music for the parade.

Geo. Shlawan didn't like the proceedings in the Court-house, because the choir sang Yankee Doodle.

ALONZO REICRAFT, another of the Bart-gang, has been sent up for life by the Montgomery Circuit Court.

The drum corps should have been merciful, and not have punished the old soldiers and other guests while at dinner.

From the way that editor McChesney figured around the stand, the audience was afraid that he would make a speech.

TOM RICHARDSON was fined $10 and costs in police court yesterday, on the charge of retailing saloon liquor in the neighborhood of "Jasper" Baker. Col. Richardson was captured Sunday in the old graveyard, he having been dodging the marshal for two weeks. There is also an old charge against the Colonel for retailing saloon liquor in the city, which will probably induce him to forego the pleasure of a seaside visit this summer, and compromise on a long visit to Miss de McCarty.

CASS SALLIE WILSON, a pupil of Mrs. Hattie Hill's art class, has on exhibition in the window of Davis & Davis, an elegant landscape and seaside view in oil colors. Besides having a perfect copy of one of the finest views extant, the artistic touches show the result of great care and skill of the pupil. There is a noticeable absence of that general roughness characteristic of most work in oil, and one has to look with a discerning eye to distinguish it from a very fine chromo.

At Victoria Hall, Sutherland, England, several thousand children attended an exhibition given by a conjurer. After all in the lower hall had gotten out after the exhibition, about 1,200 in the gallery started down, when one little girl fell down in the narrow doorway, and others stumbled, fell and were walked over until 175 were killed. This is but another instance illustrating that large masses of people lose their reason without cause, and rush headlong into death.

A new occurred at a school exhibition in Metairie county, and twelve or fifteen shots were fired prominently by the participants in the fight. A bystander named McFarland was shot through the heart. Marshal Beauchamp was shot twice, one ball entering his abdomen. A number of persons, including a young lady, received slight wounds.

Mrs. W. H. Fisher, pupil of Mrs. Hill, has completed an oil painting 6x4 feet, which has not its equal in beauty in the county. Admirers of the beautiful should call at Hinton's and see it.

SCINTILLATIONS.

—A colored woman in Chicago got a verdict of $10,000 damages in a breach of promise suit against a white man.

—Mrs. W. P. Ardery, who was hopelessly ill a few days ago, is rapidly improving now.

—The greatest pleasure we know is to do a good action by stealth, and to have to find it out by accident.

—The marriage of Miss Mattie Arnold, of Eminence, to Ed. M. Cochran, of Ill., will take place to-morrow.

—Bob Ingersoll has taken a cottage at Long Branch for the summer, and says it is as good a heaven as he wants.

—A Georgia man let a black cat chase him up a tree and keep him there all night. When he observed next morning that the cat was not a bear he brained it.

—Out in Denver five young ladies ride the bicycle "man fashion," clad in black velvet knee-breeches, woolen high stockings, a pole cap, and a sack coat, with low-cut bicycle shoes.

—Chelepa, the Widow of Orany, the Indian chief, has become the bride of a young Ute. She was married in buckskin leggings, and on the blankets "U." was woven in large black letters.

—Miss Kitty Ford Davis returned home from St. Louis, last Friday, where she has been attending school. She attained the highest rank in her class of twenty-seven—having an average of 99 per cent.

—There is no better test of purity and true goodness than reluctance to think evil of one's neighbor, and absolute incapacity to believe an evil report about good men, except upon the most trustworthy evidence.

—Win. Tarr, Major Flowers, Will Current and others from this county, got on the Louisville Short-Line train at the Latonia races and were taken over into Newport before they discovered that they were on the wrong train.

—Some weeks ago a woman eloped from Portland, Me., with a young man. Her husband took it calmly and did not try to find her. Monday he received a letter from her, dated at Boston, in which she said: "So far God has blessed us with health, but John has no regular work yet."

The Lexington correspondent of the Courier-Journal, in commenting on the graduation of the graduates of Kentucky University, says: "These addresses were altogether of more than average merit as graduates' orations commonly go. Particularly full of meat for reflection was that of Mr. Shipps, of the Arts and Sciences, who graduated from both the Arts and Bible College of the University."

—The Lexington Gazette tells of the following fine opening for a young lady: There is a school-house in the edge of Jessamine that can't keep a teacher. Every young lady who goes there stays but a short time, and then gets married and goes off. If there is a lady qualified to teach, mortally ugly and too old to marry, she can get a permanent situation by applying to the Trustees of that school.

—Mrs. Langtry has arrived in New York from Halifax. Her share of profits for the last five weeks was $15,000, and she has now in bank $100,000, and she has now in bank $100,000 as net proceeds of her American tour. Mrs. Langtry will travel next season in a new parlor car called the "Jerome Marble," which is decorated with the finest on wheels. It will have plate glass windows from the floor to the roof, an elegant bed in the middle, and will be highly decorated.

On top of a thousand other sins, it is now said that the little English sparrow broke out with and spread the small-pox. If some sharp detective will look into the case from this standpoint, we would not be surprised but what it can be shown that these little birds created the Ashland tragedy in place of Neal and Craft and the negroes.

JOHN LARK climbed a bee tree Sunday and got a bucket of honey and four young bees out of the same hole. He put the bees in his shirt bosom, and while climbing down they barked up the skin all over his body while climbing around trying to escape.

At McKee's nursery farm near Cynthia, last week, thirty strawberry-picking hands struck for an increase of thirty cents additional wages per day. Their terms were not acceded to, and new hands were employed.

TOWN TALK says that there will be a grand excursion to Richmond, on July 4th. The track on the extension will be completed to the main line at the fair grounds to-morrow.

BORE—To the wife of Col. E. F. Clay, a daughter, the ninth heir.

MILLERSBURG.

Only a few students will remain over during summer.

"Yank" Jones is studying law and killing alligators in Arkansas.

Carlisle defeated Millersburg Saturday in a game of ball, by a score of 13 to 8.

Marshall Cargyle has so far recovered from his wounds as to be able to walk out a little.

Prof. J. W. Corrington accomplished the Texas ladies from the college, as far as St. Louis, yesterday.

Blugrass seed is selling at 50 cents here. The seed is plump and heavy, though the crop is said to be light.

V. C. Porter shipped five loads of cattle, sheep and hogs to the Covington market the latter part of last week.

Levy Trotter has bought the "Blue Wing" bar fixtures of McCarty, and will ask the city for saloon license.

Harlan Vinton's valuable Tennessee dog "Hannibal" has erred and gone astray. Some philanthropist please return him.

Tom Welch, of Nicholasville, and Will Gault, of Washington, attended the annual reunion of the K. W. College here last week.

Judge Cole, Will Roby, T. L. Given, Dr. Armstrong, Mrs. Tenger and others from Flemingsburg, attended the exercises here last week.

Col. Morrow says that he does not believe that Joe Corrington had a revolver, but that he threw his hand behind him to his hip pocket to make believe that he had one, during the railroad fight.

The Cincinnati Enquirer of yesterday, says that H. H. Shelman and Mrs. Jennie Smart, a conductor's wife, arrived at Hunt's Hotel, and Shelman asked to be assigned to a room near Mr. Smart's, with a knowing wink to the clerk. The clerk told him that if he went to that lady's room he would send him to the station house. The next night he was suspected of having intruded there, and the following night a special watch was kept for him and he was found in the room, arrested and sent to the station house, but was released on account of there being no law for holding him. The woman was given the grand bouce.

P. Bots, Louisville, says that both bottles of Bowditch's Iron Bitters entirely relieved him from vertigo.

Leonatus has won his sixth consecutive race this season.

Two railroad sale of horses, mules, carts and utensils to-morrow.

The Covington Stables received 3,317 head of stock Saturday from the Kentucky Central Railroad.

FOR SALE—A fine combined saddle and harness horse—a first-class walker. Je-41 Jas. Stokes, Little Rock.

Vanderbilt has discharged Bair, the trainer of Maud S., and it is thought that Dan Mace has been employed in his place.

The largest bid for choice during the week at Latonia, was made Saturday by George Midwell, who gave $700 for Gleaner, Lizzie S., selling for $135.

Stock in the Latonia Jockey Club Association sold Friday at $150. A California horseman brought for $15,000 worth at $1.15, but couldn't get it.

Sam Bell, of Clintonville, precinct, this didn't get badly left. The other winners were Drake, Carter, Little Buttercup and Lord Raglan. The track was in fine condition, and the time was good.

At the Latonia races Saturday, Lizzie S., Ballard, Mattie Rapture, Katie Creel and the Molur colt were the winners. The lumberman Magbush's Snowbowl fell down and broke his neck in jumping a hurdle. Snowbowl was valued at $2,000. The Enguier very unjustly censures the owners of Lizzie S., as having "put up a dump." Mr. Swiney answers us that such was not the case, and that all was for the best.

The News-Journal says: "John Swiney says he is satisfied, but he didn't make half as much as so good a fellow deserves. Young Bill Aleck, from Paris, went in too brash at the start, and the races didn't last long enough for him to get even."

ANNOUNCEMENT.

JUDGE T. F. HARGIS,

CANDIDATE FOR
Judge of Circuit of Appeals.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.

We are authorized to announce Wellington A. Cunningham, of this county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge, to fill the vacancy rendered by the resignation of Judge Ben. F. Buckner. He respectfully submits his claims to the Democracy.

REGARDING the Gould-Green difficulty, the Maysville Republican says:

"A most cowardly and brutal assault was made upon the Rev. Elisha Green, on board the Kentucky Central railroad train on Friday, by Rev. G. T. Gould, president of the Millersburg Female College, and professors Bristow and Corrington, connected with the same institution.

The case is the more brutal when it is taken into consideration that Rev. Elisha Green is advanced in years and enfeebled by an injury received on the road, near the place of assault, several years ago, whilst his assailants were three strong, able-bodied men, any one of whom could have handled him. It is a shocking and disgusting outrage, when we consider that the attack was made upon a colored man, and are of the firm belief that it never would have been attempted if he had been white. It evinces base, brutal and degraded minds, which assaulted and would perhaps have gone farther if they had not been restrained. It proclaims to the world that they are totally unfit for the positions they hold as educators of the morals of young ladies. It is a disgrace they have brought upon the ministry for which they should be fittingly rebuked by the church to which they belong. Finally, it betrays the wolf in sheep's clothing, the most vicious and despicable of characters.

PETER McGOUGH, the "lard bull" of Chicago, failed Saturday for over two million dollars on the speculation of oil during Friday and Saturday. It fell from $11.17 1/2 to $9.05, and finally went up to $9.80. The decline though apparently slight amounted to an equivalent to 32 cents on the bushel to wheat margins. Handling margins on lard appears to be rather slippery business.

THE people do not have much confidence in the Burnett theory regarding the Ashland tragedy, and still claim that Neal and Craft are the guilty ones. At any rate, it may be well to hang them, for in case they should be turned loose they would certainly enter the lecture field, and that would be death and rapine on an innocent public.

CHAFF's brother has written a very sensible letter to the Cincinnati Enquirer, in which he disclaims any trickery on his part, in the Burnett enterprise. He makes a very dispassionate statement, and one calculated to create much sympathy, although the masses of the people are slow to take stock in the enterprise.

WHEN Sullivan whipped an Englishman on the stage, this country was naturally proud of him. When it was learned he got drunk and was the champion of saloon rows were prouder than ever of him; but when it was announced that he beat his wife, and even thumped his poor old mother, there was simply no limit to our pride.

FORTY-SIX newspapers in Indiana are already out for the old ticket of Tilden and Hendricks.

The Ohio Prohibitionists met at Columbus, Thursday, and nominated a full ticket with Ferdinand Schumacher, of Summit county, for Governor, and M. T. Ogden, of Hamilton county, for Lieutenant Governor. Now, with Hoadly nominated by the Democrats, the Democracy can be assured with success by about 40,000 majority.

Two hundred Chinamen dressed in queues and plug hats, enjoyed a picnic and clam-bake in New York, Monday. Among the poetic names of the participants were One Lung, Two Lung, No Lung and Sing Sing, and, as No Lung expressed it, they had not enjoyed themselves so much since they had the small-pox.

The Ohio Republicans found no place on their ticket for a colored man. Even the convention of revenue Collectors, Postmasters, Gunners and Storekeepers, recently assembled at Lexington in the name of the Republican party of Kentucky, did better than they.

WHILE at Latonia Friday, we heard a man who is high political authority in Covington, say that if Col. Thos. L. Jones should decide to run independent for Governor, he couldn't get five Democratic votes in Kenton county.

The campaign between the nominees Messrs. Knott and Morrow, commenced at Mt. Vernon, Saturday. Capt. Hindman has written that he will speak here about the first Monday in July.

It may be interesting to thin-skinned scoundrels and briefless lawyers everywhere to know that the Courier-Journal has knocked the stuffin' out of another libel suit.—[C. J.]

Simon Blanchard, Hawesville, Ky., says his wife used Brown's Iron Bitters for a broken-down constitution and it acted like a charm.

Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Legassart, Ind. Dec. 1, 1880.
For a long time I have been a sufferer from stomach and kidney disease. My appetite was very poor and the very least amount I ate did me harm. I was unable to do any work. I tried many remedies with Iron Bitters. Since I used them my appetite is simply immense. My kidneys are now in good order and my general health is such that I feel with ease. I have gained twenty pounds in weight in one month. I feel like a new man.

W. B. SASSON.

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

Boyle's Revolving Barrel Churn.

Boyle's Revolving Barrel Churn without dash or paddle has accomplished a revolution in butter-making. It will make more butter out of the same amount of cream, and a better quality with less labor than any other churn. A boy can churn ten gallons of cream in half an hour, and in its journals, and as it revolves, the cream falls from end to end, and the agitation being equal throughout the whole mass, the butter is all separate at the same time and is preserved to a larger per cent. than by the old process. It follows that no half-churned cream is left in the buttermilk, or to mix with the butter, which would give it a bad quality. The churn will injure its keeping quality and decrease its value. The cream acts upon the inner round surface of the barrel, and the butter is made by concussion and not by friction. The head is easily removed, and being air tight, the atmosphere is excluded, thereby holding the cream at the proper temperature. I am the agent for this churn for the State of Kentucky, and any one wanting to buy a churn or country right can find me for the present at Thos. Phillips' store, my 23-1m SELBY LILLESTON.

In commendation of the Boyle Revolving Barrel Churn, the following well-known gentlemen of Paris and Bourbon county, speak as follows:

It is easily worked and churns perfectly, bringing butter in twelve or fifteen minutes; it gathers perfectly and is easily cleaned. W. W. MASSIE.

I consider it superior to any other I have ever tried. It will make more butter and quicker, with less labor than any other churn. W. W. GILL.

Have used it three years; it is the best I ever used. It requires less labor in working and cleaning than any. Mine makes itself each year in the increase of butter. J. L. TRUNDLE.

It is easily worked, easily cleaned and works perfectly. I cheerfully recommend it to all needing a churn. HENRY HALL.

The High-Bred Trotting Stallion

GOLDSMITH.

BY RYSDYK'S HAMBLETONIAN His dam, Lady Hulse, by Imported Trustee, (disregarded.)

Will make the season of 1883, at my stable, at Millersburg, Ky., at $25 To Insure a Living Colt.

Money due when the mare foals or is parted with. No other horse in Kentucky of equal breeding and merit stands for less than $50.

GOLDSMITH is a rich brown, heavy mane and tail, 15 hands, 3 inches high strong bone, fine action, remarkably good disposition and sound in every particular. His colts are uniformly large, smooth and well gaited. He was sold by Mr. Alden Goldsmith from a colt to D. B. Haight, Dover Plains, N. Y., and owned by him until sold to me. Mares from a distance kept 30 days, on grass, free. No responsibility for accidents. Also one of the best.

YOUNG BLACK JACKS

In Kentucky, 15 1/2 hands high, will serve mares at $25.00. Bred by J. H. Jennings at TWENTY DOLLARS for living colts. No variation in price.

Lien retained on all colts of horse and jack until season money is paid.

Alex. McClintock.

MILLERSBURG, KY., Apr. 2, '83.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN!

We call the attention of the farmers and breeders of horse stock, that I breed at my place, horses for beauty and symmetry as well as for trotting purposes. If a careful inspection is due to the sire and offspring of any horse, I would then most respectfully call attention to Caliban and his offspring—some ten or twelve of which can now be seen at my stable. Caliban will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares the coming season, offered by first-class men, (no others need apply,) at $25 to insure.

Caliban has a record of 2:34, and in the opinion of such horsemen as Dr. L. Herr, two of Caliban's yearling colts showed better than a four minute gait on my different track last spring.

I will call the attention to the fact that Alaminio Chief, with the Pilot and Clay cross, has produced some of our most noted horses. I breed for speed as well as sixteen-hands high horses, high style and rangy.

Caliban is the sire of Cyclone and Cactus, both with records better than 2:27.

STANDARD BEARER.

This celebrated horse will make the season of '83, at my stable, three miles from Millersburg and six from Paris, on the Jacktown pike, at Ten Dollars The Season, or Fifteen Dollars to insure a living colt.

STANDARD BEARER is a bay, foaled 1867; fifteen hands and three inches high; by Volunteer; dam, by Joe's Abdallah Chief; Volunteer, by Rysdyk's Hambletonian.

Like all the sons of Volunteer, Standard Bearer is proving himself a fine stock horse; his produce being large, finely formed, with superb action.

Also, my three-year-old youngling,

Lord Wellington,

15 hands and 1 inch high, good bone and length, will stand at Ten Dollars to insure a living colt.

Money due in both cases when the colt comes or mare parted with—a lien retained on the colts until season money is paid.

JAMES M. HUTSELL.

—o—

Gentlemen, our stock of Suitings is new and complete in every respect; our cutter, a recent graduate in the leading college of art on Broadway, New York, and such magic skill he has displayed since our advent in business, that each of the many suits yet turned out has been a perfect fit—no exception.

We respectfully refer you to our patrons, goods and prices.

J. L. TAYLOR & CO., "THE" CLOTHIERS,

ARE NOW OFFERING NO SPECIAL "LEADERS" AT COST AND losing money on one line and making double profits on others, but are selling double the amount of goods of any other house in town, and are making a small profit on all goods sold. In buying in large lots they are enabled to get better discounts, and of course can sell for smaller profits.

ALL OF THEIR GOOS, ARE LEADERS!
